The Judicial Committee having considered the subject on which the Board of Foreign Missions asked the advice of the Assembly, to wit, the propriety of endeavouring to obtain a charter for certain purposes, from the legislature of the State of New York: Report,

That in the peculiar circumstances of the Church, it is important that a general charter incorporating a board of ministers and elders to be elected by the General Assembly, and capable of holding property in trust for its use, and subject to its control, similar in its general features to that now existing in Pennsylvania, should be obtained in some other State; and that the state of New York is the one in which such a charter would be the most convenient. Wherefore,

Resolved, That the individuals now composing the Executive Committee of the General Assembly's Board of Foreign Missions be a committee to act in behalf of this body; and as such, to endeavour to obtain, from the state of New York, a charter similar in its essential features to the one which has been long in existence in this Commonwealth. The report was adopted.

The Committee on the times and order in which the Annual Reports of the several Boards shall be presented to the Assembly, made a report, which was amended and adopted, as follows, viz:

The Committee on the memorial of Mr. Horatio A. Parsons, made a report which was adopted, as follows, viz:

Whereas, it appears from an examination of the said memorial and of the documents accompanying it, that Mr. Parsons appeals from the decision of a Synod over which this Assembly has no jurisdiction; and where this Assembly has no means of examining into the merits of the case brought to view in this memorial; therefore,

Resolved, That the papers relating to this case be returned to Mr. Parsons, that he may, should he see fit, apply to the Presbytery of Albany, to be disposed of as that Presbytery shall deem best.

Resolved, secondly, That it appears from the peculiar circumstances of Mr. Parsons, that the interests of justice require the attention of the Presbytery of Albany to this case.

A report was received from the Committee appointed by the last Assembly, (printed minutes, page 432,) on the subject of a form of Confession by applicants for communion, and a Directory for administering adult baptism. Which was read.

The Committee on Leave of Absence report, that they have given leave to Messrs. Osterhoudt, Bartlett, and Dillard, to be absent for the remaining sessions of the Assembly; and to Mr. Baldwin, to be absent until Monday next.

The Committee would present to the consideration of the General Assembly as a serious evil, the frequent applications on the part of commissioners, especially of elders, for permission to return home, within a few days after the coming together of the Assembly.

We believe, that according to the Constitution of the Church, the Ruling Elders are essential parts of our church judicatories; and if so, it is as important that they be present during the whole sessions of the Judicatory as at its opening. Many of them have their travelling expenses paid by their Presbyteries with a view to secure their attendance, and yet comparatively few are willing to remain till the Assembly is dissolved. The Committee have remarked that these applications for leave most commonly are made, not by those whose residence is far off from the place of our meeting, but by those who can reach their homes in a few hours. Under these views the committee are often embarrassed in regard to their proper course of duty. They would be kind and indulgent, but they desire too, to be true to the trust committed to them; and they respectfully suggest to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That the Presbyteries, in the appointment of Commissioners to the General Assembly, be directed to use great care and diligence in the selection of such ministers and ruling elders as will be willing and able to remain during the entire sessions of this body.

James L. Sloss $68.77, leaving a balance of $556.86, to be divided; that there have been nine thousand eight hundred and ten miles travelled by the Commissioners who claim mileage, in coming to the present Assembly; which at 5 5-8 cents per mile will make $551.86, leaving a balance of five dollars in the Commissioners' fund this day:—therefore, Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer for five hundred and fifty-one dollars and eighty-six cents, and that he be directed to pay the same to the several persons named in the schedule of receipts and claims thereon, in the proportion therein stated.

The Committee on the Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, made a Report, which was adopted, as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, would submit the following Report:

The important document submitted to the examination of your Committee, is one which in the cause it advocates, the facts and information it offers, and the appeals it contains, is well calculated to awaken peculiar emotions in the breasts of the members of this General Assembly, and those of the officers and members of our Church generally, sentiments of gratitude and praise to God for having permitted our Church to take an honoured place in the ranks of the consecrated hosts of God, which are now moving forward in the glorious enterprise of the world's conversion, and for the success with which he has been pleased thus far to crown her efforts to send forth the riches of his salvation to distant portions of the earth—the feelings of a common and solemn obligation resting upon us and our successors in this communion, collectively and individually to persevere in this hallowed enterprise, and renew and augment our contributions and our prayers, until the spiritual dominion of the world is given to Christ, and the promised triumphs of his grace are realized among all nations; and it is also calculated to awaken the feelings of sorrow in our hearts, and grief and self-abasement before God, that we are as a community and a generation of Christians, doing so little in proportion to our ability and our obligations to the Saviour of the world, for the benighted and perishing Heathen—that so many of our Churches seem unanxious and unwilling to share in the blessing which God will surely shed forth upon those, and those only, whose hearts and hands are open for the spread of the Redeemer's kingdom: and that the exertions of our Board are to so great an extent circumscribed and restrained by the want of necessary funds to carry on the work. Our condition and our duty as a denomination, in respect to this department of our work, plainly show that the state of the world must be still more plainly laid before our Churches—Missionary information far more extensively disseminated—obligation to Christ, and the interests of his kingdom, more earnestly inculcated, and the duty and blessedness of fervent and persevering prayer for the spread of his everlasting Gospel, more constantly set forth and urged upon the followers of Christ. In view of these considerations, the Committee would propose the following Resolutions, viz.:

1. Resolved, That the Annual Report of the Board be approved, and referred to the Executive Committee for publication and distribution among the churches, as extensively as may be found practicable.

2. Resolved, That the Foreign Missionary cause obviously claims from our Church, a great augmentation of funds, and this Assembly cordially approve of the suggestion, that an effort be made to raise and place at the disposal of the Board, the sum of $100,000, for the expenses of the coming year, and that sum or more annually thereafter—believing that such an offering would eminently redound to her own temporal and spiritual welfare, as well as to the glory of God.

3. Resolved, That in order to call the attention of our churches in a special manner, to such an endeavour and to the throne of grace, to humble ourselves before God, and implore the aids of his Holy Spirit, and his blessing upon the cause of Missions in general, the first Monday of October next be, and the same hereby is appointed and set apart as a day of public instruction on the subject of Foreign Missions, and of supplication and prayer throughout the bounds of our Church, to the intent that our past sins and neglect may be duly recognized and deplored—our duty to the Heathen distinctly set before the churches; our dependence upon the Grace of God in this matter clearly presented, and the influences of the Holy Spirit upon ourselves and our missionary stations, fervently invoked. And it is herein further recommended to all our Presbyteries to take order for a similar observance, and with a similar view, of the first Monday in January annually.

4. Resolved, That this General Assembly highly approve of the proposal of the Executive Committee, to establish a small monthly paper, to be denominated The Foreign Missionary, to be afforded to subscribers at the small sum of twelve and a half cents per annum, exclusive of postage, in the belief that with little exertion on the part of Pastors and Church Sessions, there may be annually circulated among our people, and the youth and children of our Congregations and Sabbath Schools, from fifty to one hundred thousand of copies of a work thus calculated and adapted to furnish a great amount of select Missionary information.

On motion of Mr. Dulty,

Resolved, That this General Assembly earnestly recommend to the Bishops and Elders under its care, to take special pains in directing the attention of the children and youth of the Church, to the great subject of Missions. And in order to do this more effectually, advise the formation of Juvenile Missionary Societies wherever practicable, in every Sabbath School, throughout the bounds of the Church.

On motion, nominations were made for persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Foreign Missions. And the election was made the order of the day at nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

On motion, nominations were made for persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Education. And the election was made the second order of the day, for nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Committee on the Annual Report of the Board of Missions, made a Report, which was adopted, as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Missions, beg leave to recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That this General Assembly is called upon to express its gratitude to God, that amidst the almost unexampled embarrassments of the times, he has enabled their Board of Domestic Missions to prosecute the work entrusted to them, not only without diminution, but with increased success.

2. That the employment of two hundred and eighty-six ministers, preaching the everlasting gospel in more than eight hundred congregations, and in twenty-three States and Territories; the addition to the visible church of more than two thousand souls by the instrumentality of those ministers led to Christ; the gathering of sixty new churches, and the erection of sixty or more houses of worship; the instruction of twenty thousand youth in Sabbath Schools and in the catechisms of our Church; and the wide dissemination of the books of the Board of Publication—by the labours of these ministers, through so many new and destitute settlements during the past year, are striking proofs that this Board is one of the most important and useful agencies of the Church for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom through the earth.

3. That the condition of the population of wide portions especially of our Southern and Western States, not only justifies, but requires the employment of Evangelists engaged in itinerant labours, and that pastors are called upon in all such regions, to inquire if they cannot extend their labours beyond the bounds of their own congregations, occupy new stations for preaching, gather new churches, and with the consent of their own people, spend some portion of their time in missionary labours.

4. That it behoves our several Presbyteries to take a careful survey of the territory within their respective bounds, inquire whether the population residing there is fully supplied with the ordinances of the gospel, and in habitual attendance on the worship of God, and to take such measures as their wisdom may suggest, to establish at all proper points the preaching of the word and the ordinances of God's house.

5. That the Report of the Board of Missions be approved by this Assembly, and be recommended to the attention of our Synods, Presbyteries, churches, and members, and that it be returned to the Board for publication as they shall see fit.

On motion, The Assembly sat in a judicial capacity; and resumed the consideration of case No. 1. Mr. Lowry was heard in behalf of the complainants. And then the court rose, and the Assembly resumed.

On motion, The Report of the Committee appointed by the last Assembly on a Directory for Adult Baptism, &c., was taken up and made the order of the day for Tuesday morning next.

And then the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to Messrs. A. Thompson, Stiger, Sample, W. B. Ewing, Root, Potter, and Roller, for the remainder of the Sessions; and to Mr. Kelton, until Wednesday morning—which was approved.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures reported a resolution, interpreting the act of 1838, (printed Minutes, pp. 34, &c.)—which was read and put on the docket.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report which was adopted as follows, viz.

Resolved, That the request of the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, contained in their printed Minutes for 1841, for such an "alteration of the terms of correspondence between them and this body, as that hereafter the delegation to and from them shall consist of one minister only," be concurred in by this Assembly.

The Committee further reported a letter to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; which was amended, and then the letter was approved; and it was ordered that the same be signed by the Moderator and Clerks of this Assembly, and transmitted to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

The Committees on the records of the Synods of Albany, New York, New Jersey, Pittsburgh, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, West Tennessee, and Missouri, severally reported; and all these records were approved.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Mississippi reported, and the records were approved with the following exception, viz. "that on page 321, the Synod acknowledges the constitutionality of a meeting of the Presbytery of Clinton that had been called by a Moderator chosen pro tempore at a previous pro re nata meeting, instead of being called by the Moderator appointed at the last stated meeting of the Presbytery."

The Committee on the subject of hasty Ordinations, again reported; and their report was considered, amended, and adopted as follows, viz.

The Moderator of the last General Assembly submitted to the Committee of Overtures, a Minute in regard to hasty ordination of Ministers of the Gospel, and to unauthorized demission of their covenanted employment by Ministers; which that Committee reported to the Assembly, (Overture No. 11, p. 423, printed Minutes of 1841,) and which being considered, was referred to a Select Committee, (p. 425,) the report of which, together with the original minute, was, by order of the Assembly, (page 447,) referred to another Select Committee, which was directed to report to the Assembly of 1842; which last named Committee, having considered the subject, submit the following Minute as their Report, viz.

I. That as persons are liable to mistake their calling, and as the office of the ministry is, by God's institution, a permanent one, which cannot be laid aside at pleasure, Presbyteries ought to exercise great caution in ordaining Ministers of the Gospel. And they are hereby enjoined, not to ordain any one to the pastoral office, until full proof has been made of him, as a Licentiate, by the Presbytery that ordains him.

II. As one great evidence of a divine call to the work of the ministry, is the call of a particular congregation, it is especially necessary to use great caution in ordinations, sine titulo; and the Presbyteries are enjoined not to proceed to such ordinations, except in the cases provided for in our form of government.

III. That the Presbyteries are specially enjoined not to ordain their licentiates when they are about to remove into the bounds of other Presbyteries, but to dismiss them as Licentiates.

IV. That, as intimately connected with this subject, Presbyteries ought to have a special oversight of the settlement of ministers in vacant churches, as by the word of God, and the standards of the Church, they are empowered and directed. And that in all such settlements, it is in itself right, and would tend to establish proper order, and the due supervision of Presbyteries, and to break up irregular influences and residences, that vacant churches should apply to their own Presbyteries for supplies.

V. That permanent ministerial connexion with any Presbytery except that in whose bounds the individual lives, is irregular and disorderly, and ought not to be allowed. But where the residence is not in the bounds of any of our Presbyteries, (as in the case of foreign missionaries,) the connection may be with either of them.

VI. That the relation of Stated Supply, which has grown up between many of our churches and ministers, is unknown to our system, and tends to disorder and injury in many ways. The Presbyteries are therefore directed to supplant it, as far as possible, in all cases, by the regular pastoral relation; and to discountenance it as a permanent relation.

VII. That those ministers who give up the regular and stated work of the gospel ministry as their main work, except it be for reasons satisfactory to their Presbyteries, should be called to an account by the Presbyteries to which they belong, and dealt with according to the merits of their respective cases. And the justifiable cause for which any minister gives up his work, should be stated on the minutes of his Presbytery at the time with the approval of the body.

VIII. That all our Presbyteries be directed, at their first stated meeting after the rising of this Assembly, to require such ministers in their bounds, as are not regularly engaged in their covenanted work, as their chief business—to give an account of themselves: and the Presbyteries shall take such order in the premises, as is consistent with this minute, and report their doings specially, to their respective Synods, and to the next Assembly.

IX. The whole object of this action is to enforce the true principles of our standards, in regard to the calling and work of the gospel ministry; and to correct errors and irregularities which have sprung up in various places. And for effectual reform in the premises, the whole subject is commended to the special attention of all our Synods and Presbyteries. And nothing herein is to be construed as any disparagement of the true office and work of an Evangelist, which is scriptural, permanent, and most important; and on that very account the more carefully to be guarded, lest it become a pretext and covering for deceived persons, or for intruders into the holy work of the gospel ministry.

X. Resolved, That it be referred to the Presbyteries, whether the following section shall be added to the 15th chapter of our Form of Government, viz.

The office of a minister of the gospel is perpetual, and cannot be laid aside at pleasure; yet any minister may, with the permission of his Presbytery, demit the exercise of his office, and when any minister has thus demitted the exercise of his office, he shall not be permitted to sit as a member of any of our ecclesiastical judicatories. And any minister having so demitted the exercise of his office, may, on personal application to the Presbytery which allowed him to demit it, if said Presbytery think proper, be, by it, restored to the exercise thereof, and to all the rights incident thereto.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported that Mr. Lord had been appointed to conduct a religious service in the Seventh Presbyterian church on Monday evening, instead of the appointment previously made for that evening. Which was approved.

And then the Assembly adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY Morning, May 30, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee made a report which was adopted as follows, viz:

In the case of Hanna against the Synod of Wheeling, which has been already reported to the Assembly and entered upon the docket, marked No. 5, but which at the request of the Judicial Committee was recommitted, the Committee report that having more thoroughly investigated and maturely considered all the papers brought up to this Assembly, they find them irregular and informal, and recommend to the Assembly the following order, That the case be remitted to the Synod, with the injunction to that body, that they send up to the next General Assembly, full and authentic records of all the proceedings and testimony in the case, according to the requirement of the Book of Discipline, chapter 7, section 3, article 16.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported a letter to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connexion with the Church of Scotland: which was approved, and it was ordered that the same be signed by the Moderator and Clerks, and transmitted.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz. the Report of the Committee of Psalmody. When, on motion of Dr. Howe, it was Resolved, That the report of the committee be accepted, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The following resolution was then offered by Dr. Howe, viz.

Resolved, That the Book of Hymns selected by the committee be approved by this Assembly, and be allowed to be used by all our churches.

Dr. McFarland moved to amend the motion, so as to refer the book to the Presbyteries for their approval. And after debate the motion was lost. Yeas 50, Nays 57.

It was then moved to amend the book by striking out hymn 199, on account of the first verse, lines third and fourth, viz.

"Here a pure and healing fountain Flows for every guilty soul."

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out hymn 654, viz.

"Morn is the time to wake," &c.

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out from hymn 314, verse third, viz.

"Bold shall I stand in that great day,
For who aught to my charge shall lay?
While through thy blood absolved I am,
From sin's tremendous curse and shame."

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out from hymn 290, verse sixth, viz.

"That blest moment I received him
Filled my soul with joy and peace;
Love I much, I'm much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace."

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out hymn 51, viz.

"When marshall'd on the nightly plain," &c.

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out hymn 538, viz.

"Hark to the solemn bell," &c.

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out hymn 96, viz.

"But when armed with vengeance, in terror he comes," &c.

Which was lost.

Moved to strike out from hymn 192, verse fourth, viz.

"Am I call'd? I am, I am,
Meanest follower of the Lamb;
Am I call'd? O joy of joys,
Earth, I spurn thy gilded toys;
Wash'd, redeem'd, by precious blood,
Heir of bliss, a child of God."

Which was lost.

And after debate, on motion, the book was amended, as follows, viz. To hymn 250, add verse fourth from Watts, viz.

"So on a tree divinely fair," &c.

From hymn No. 507. Strike out last two lines of verse first, and first two lines of verse second, thus, viz.

"And while the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return.
Life is the hour that God has given
To escape from hell and fly to heaven."

In hymn 177, verse second, line first, change "fate" to "death."

In hymn 154, strike out the title.

And then,

On motion of Dr. Hodge, it was

Resolved, That the Book of hymns be referred back to the Committee on Psalmody, with directions to make such alterations as their own judgment or the suggestions of others may dictate, and to report it together with the Book of Psalms to the next Assembly.

And then the Assembly adjourned until this afternoon at 3½ o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY Afternoon, 3½ o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Dr. Krebs gave notice that at a convenient time he would move to reconsider the resolution of this morning, by which the Book of Hymns was recommitted to the Committee on Psalmody with instructions; on which motion not having voted, he was therefore considered as having voted with the majority.

On motion, The Assembly sat in a judicial capacity; when the order of the day, viz. case No. 1, was postponed, and the court resumed the case No. 3. And Dr. Phillips was heard in behalf of the complainants. The Synod were fully heard through Messrs. J. Montgomery and Todd. And the parties having been fully heard,

The Court rose.

And then the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY Morning, May 31, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On motion, it was resolved to proceed to the election of a Delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church. When the Rev.

Dr. Samuel Miller was chosen as principal, and the Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus as alternate.

On motion, The resolution reported by the Committee of Bills and Overtures, to interpret the act of 1838, (printed Minutes, pp. 34, &c.) was taken up, and unanimously adopted, viz.

Whereas it is believed by this Assembly, that there are ministers and churches and private Christians within our bounds, holding the same doctrines and maintaining the same church order with us, but who from a misapprehension of the acts of the Assembly of 1838, are not in our communion; and whereas, as it is expressed in Act II, adopted by that Assembly, it was never the intention of the General Assembly to cause any sound Presbyterian to be permanently separated from our connexion, but it is and always was the desire of the church, that all who really embrace our doctrine, love our order, and are willing to conform to our discipline, should unite themselves with us; and moreover, as the General Assembly has no idea of narrowing, but would rather expand its geographical limits, so as to unite in bonds of the most intimate fellowship every evangelical church like-minded with ourselves throughout every portion of our beloved country, therefore

1. Resolved, That it is hereby declared by the General Assembly, that in requiring an adherence to our Church on the basis of the Assemblies of 1837 and 1838, they did not create, nor introduce any new basis of Presbyterianism, but required an adherence to the true and only basis of our organization and communion, viz. the doctrinal standards and constitution of our Church, as founded on the word of God, a deplorable departure from which had been suffered through the operation of the Plan of Union.

2. Resolved, That it was not then, and is not now, required of those who would adhere to us as a branch of the Church of Christ, that, as a term of membership in this Church, they should approve the acts of the Assembly of 1837 and 1838; but simply that they should recognize the Church as then and subsequently constituted as the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and acknowledge their subjection to its judicatories.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to Messrs. Spence, D. Brown, Avery, and W. H. White, for the remainder of the session. Which was approved.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report, which was adopted, as follows, viz.

That the election of Delegates to Corresponding Bodies be the order of the day for Thursday morning.

On motion, The order of the day was postponed, and the Assembly sat in a judicial capacity, and the Court resumed the consideration of case No. 3, the complaint of the First Church of Peoria. Non liquet.—Messrs. Swift, Walker, Anderson, Pryor, Lacy, Cummings, Frontis, Van Court, Caldwell.—9.

So the House refused to sustain the complaint.

Whereupon, on motion of Dr. Krebs,

Resolved, That the censure which was laid by the Assembly of 1840, upon the Rev. Mr. Kellar, the Presbytery of Peoria, and the Synod of Illinois, be and the same is hereby removed.

Dr. Krebs then offered the following minute, viz.

Resolved, (1.) That the Synod of Illinois and its Commission, erred by transcending their powers and the directions of the General Assembly of 1840, when they dissolved the First Church of Peoria.

(2.) That the Presbytery of Peoria be and it is hereby directed to restore the name of the aforesaid First Church of Peoria to its roll—the same being, and it is hereby declared to be, a constituent part of the Presbytery of Peoria, and of the Synod of Illinois.

(3.) That to prevent all future misconstruction, the Church of Peoria created by the Commission as approved by the Synod of Illinois, be and it is hereby recognized and declared to be the Second Church of Peoria.

On motion, Case No. 1, the appeal of Mr. McQueen, was taken up. Mr. Stanton was excused, and Dr. Krebs was appointed in place of Mr. Stanton, the counsel of Mr. McQueen.

The sentence appealed from, the appellant's reasons, and the whole record of the Presbytery of Fayetteville in the case, were read.

And then the court rose, and the Assembly resumed.

The Committee on the Annual Report of the Board of Education, made a Report, which was considered and adopted as follows, viz.

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Education, would recommend the adoption of the following minute, viz. Whereas the General Assembly at its last meeting, seeing that the number of their candidates for the ministry was from year to year diminishing, felt constrained to recognize their entire dependence on God for their increase, and the impotence of all human organizations without the Divine blessing. And whereas, under this sense of dependence, the last General Assembly earnestly recommended to all the Churches to betake themselves to the Lord of the harvest, in fervent and importunate prayer, on a day fixed upon for that purpose; and as we find from the Report of the Board of Education, that God has in a very remarkable manner, answered those prayers in a speedy and large increase of candidates for the ministry, therefore Resolved, 1. That this Assembly do not ascribe this success to the wisdom or efficiency of their plans of operation, but entirely to the blessing of God, and do therefore call upon the Churches to give him all the glory.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly regard this but as the first fruits of a great and glorious harvest which they may reap if they faint not; and that while they should render thanks for mercies received, they should pray without ceasing, till the number of labourers is sufficient to gather the great harvest. They would therefore earnestly recommend to all their Ministers and churches, that on the first Sabbath in November, the same day of the year in which our God has heard our prayers, united thanksgiving and praise be rendered to his adorable name for his condescension and grace; and that at the same time fervent and importunate prayer be offered that he would continue to pour out his Spirit, and even more abundantly, and incline the hearts of many more to preach the Gospel to a perishing world.

Resolved, 3. That on the same day, if convenient, it be recommended to all our Ministers, to preach on "the influence of a pious and learned ministry on the temporal and eternal happiness of mankind, and the necessity for increasing such a ministry."

Resolved, 4. That inasmuch as God has heard our prayers, and increased the number of the candidates under the care of our Board of Education, and we trust will grant us a still larger increase, it is the indispensable duty of our churches to provide for them the necessary aid in the prosecution of their studies. This can probably be better accomplished by bringing the churches more universally to co-operate in this work, than to strive for larger contributions from those churches which now give liberally. It is therefore enjoined on all the Presbyteries to adopt such measures as they may deem best to secure the accomplishment of this purpose. Also, that the Synods inquire whether the Presbyteries have taken due order on this subject.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly earnestly recommend to the Board of Education to avail themselves, as far as possible, of our system of ecclesiastical organization, believing that with the wise and hearty co-operation of our inferior judicatories, they can most economically and successfully carry forward their great enterprise. The Assembly would also express their great gratification that so many Pastors have rendered, and propose to render, gratuitous services to the Board, and would warmly recommend to all who have it in their power to render such services, to do it willingly, and thus save the Board from what may otherwise be indispensable—the employment of more agents.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly deem it of great importance, that all the Presbyteries should take upon themselves directly, the important duty of selecting, examining, and recommending to the patronage of the Board, all the beneficiaries belonging to their churches, and of watching over them during every stage of their progress in their preparation for the ministry, agreeably to the general principles stated in their Annual Report.

Finally, That the Report be approved, and referred to the Board for publication.

The Committee on Finance made a report which was read, and the same being considered, was adopted as follows, viz:

The Standing Committee on Finance submit the following report, with the accompanying papers and exhibits, as the result of their labours during such intervals as they have been able, in the recesses of the Assembly, to devote to the important and difficult subject committed to them.

The Assembly referred specially to this committee the Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly; The Report of the Trustees themselves; the 17th Annual Report of the Trustees of the Princeton Seminary; and the Report of the Committee on the deficit in the annual income of said Seminary. The observations we have to submit will be made in connexion with these documents considered successively.

1. The Treasurer's Report, herewith returned marked A, is for the financial year extending from May 1, 1841, to May 1, 1842, the total receipts acknowledged during that period amount to $15,922.80, and the total expenditures reported to $12,638.45; leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands on the 1st of May, 1842, of $3,284.35. But this balance is not available being retained as subject to various items of expenditure which absorb all of it except $316.41. The paper marked B, herewith submitted, was put into the hands of the Committee to explain the manner in which this large nominal balance is appropriated. We have not had time to examine this part of the subject, and will not therefore be understood as approving it.

The receipts reported during the past year are less by $1,905.56 than those reported the year before.

The Treasurer in obedience to the directions of the General Assembly of 1841 (minutes p. 442) has closed the old books and opened a new set,—which appear to be very neatly kept.

We herewith submit to the Assembly the balance-sheet of the Trustees, marked C. The total amount of the stocks, bonds, loans, &c., now held by the Trustees, is set down at $189,143.74, being the actual cost; in other words the Trustees having actually received at different times and on various accounts for the several permanent funds of the Assembly, this large sum of money. It is to be observed, however, that this amount is subject to reduction by the amount of the cash balance reported as in hand May 1, 1842, explained above; and also by the sum of $2,017.57 debit on the profit and loss account. That is, this last sum is a total loss over and above the loss by depreciation of stocks, &c.; being so much of the capital stock sunk, in various ways not explained to the Committee. This loss is of long standing, but is now precisely revealed by the process incident to the closing of the old books and the opening of the new upon a better system. It is a loss of about twelve per cent. on the whole amount of our funds, occurring before the commencement of the recent disastrous revolution in the moneyed affairs of the country.

This balance sheet of the Trustees represents the whole amount of the funds to be different, from the whole amount reported by the Committee on the Funds, to the last General Assembly; (see Minutes of 1841, p. 469, Appendix A.) The amount of this difference between the statements then and now furnished is $6,378.50. The paper marked D., herewith submitted, is the Treasurer's explanation of this difference. The committee not having time to examine the matter further, submit it without remark.

The paper marked E. herewith submitted, contains a variety of important information arranged in successive tables. No. 1, is a list of the general stocks, bonds, loans, &c., with their original par value, and their actual cost, so arranged as to show the stocks by themselves, and the loans by themselves; the cost of the former being $128,850.27, and of the latter $29,440.74. No. 2, is a list of such of those funds as will probably pay interest during the current financial year, with an estimate of the interest likely to be received; which will probably amount this year to $3,421.20 only; and a second list of such as will probably pay nothing this year. No. 3, is a detailed list of the probable expenses during the current financial year, which amount to $10,242.14; and a second detailed list of the ordinary sources of revenue, with the probable amount, viz. $3,421.20; leaving a deficit to be supplied from extraordinary sources of $6,820.84. No. 4, is a table of securities for distinct objects, amounting to $10,000. No. 5, is a table of the funds transferred to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, in part execution of the direction of the last General Assembly; the aggregate of the fund is $3300 satisfied by transferring stock that cost $3,318.00. No. 6, is a list of the bequests of the late Joseph Eastburn, for the Mariners' church of Philadelphia, amounting nominally to $6,550.00.

In relation to these tables nothing special need be said, except in regard to the matter to which No. 5 relates, (the transfer of funds to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton,) about which we will speak in another part of this report; and in regard to No. 3, which relates to the expenses and income, about which we submit the following observations.

The estimated expenses divide themselves into four classes. No. 1, amounting to $350, relates expressly to the Board of Trustees; No. 2, amounting to $1,000, to the subject of Missions; No. 3, amounting to $3,092.04 to the subject of beneficiary education; and No. 4, the whole balance of $5,800 to the salaries of the theological professors at Princeton. To meet this, the Treasurer reports a probable income, of $3,421.20. We recommend that No. 2 be referred to the Board of Domestic Missions, to be provided for; and that No. 3 be referred to the Board of Education to be provided for as being objects specifically relating to their immediate duties and field of operation. We recommend that No. 1 be deducted from the ordinary income; and the whole balance of that income, which in this arrangement will amount to $3,071.20, be applied to No. 4, to wit, the professors' salaries; in which case there will remain a deficit, on this item, of only $2,728.80 to be provided for by the Assembly; in regard to which we will speak in another part of this report. By this arrangement this formidable and increasing deficit of $6,820.84 is so distributed and reduced as to be manageable without much difficulty, till the Church can see the end of the present state of confusion and uncertainty.

It may not be amiss to say here, that steps should be taken to increase the annual contributions to the contingent fund, to which not one half of our Presbyteries contribute any thing, and very few of them beyond a mere trifle.

2. We proceed to the Report of the Board of Trustees, which is herewith submitted, marked F. Three points are touched on in it. The first of these needs no particular notice, being in relation to the closing of the old books and the opening of new ones, by the Treasurer; to which we have already alluded.

The second point relates to the transfer of the funds properly belonging to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, from the care of the Trustees of this Assembly, to the care of the Trustees of that Seminary. The opinion of the able Committee of Finance of the last Assembly was clear and decided that this should be done; and the direction of the Assembly itself was precise and positive that the transfer should be made. (See minutes, p. 441—443. We decidedly concur in this opinion—and consider the action of the Trustees in this matter, now reported by them and explained in detail in paper E, No. 5, entirely short of the direction of the Assembly; which direction we therefore recommend to be reiterated. The slightest view of the balance-sheet of the Trustees shows that the great mass of the funds were for the use of the Seminary at Princeton, and belong in reality to it. And if the proprieties of the case did not clearly show that its Trustees should control them, certainly the practical results do. Unless there be insuperable difficulties in the way of the transfer, it ought to be made, as soon as it can be properly done.

The third point in the report of the Trustees relates to a change in the investment of the funds under their control, which the last Assembly, on the recommendation of its Committee of Finance, directed to be made from the "very questionable securities" then held, to "bond and mortgage on real estate"—"as soon as it could be done with advantage and safety." (Minutes of 1841, p. 442.) The Trustees in the exercise of the discretion allowed them, have thought it best not to make the contemplated change. We herewith submit to the Assembly a detailed statement drawn up for this Committee, and signed by gentlemen thoroughly competent and disinterested, which presents this whole subject in a clear light. It is marked G, and presents at a single view, 1. the No. of shares owned; 2. the description of stock; 3. the par value per share; 4. the par value in amount; 5. the total cost; 6. the premium paid; 7. the present market value per share; 8. the present value in amount; 9. the estimated loss; 10. probable increase in value; 11. estimated income. This table shows that the original par value of the securities now held by the Trustees was $124,695, and the whole cost thereof $136,339.62; that is that a premium of $11,331.88 was paid in the first instance to get hold of these securities. It further shows that the present market value of all these securities is only $46,705, leaving a loss of $89,634.62, which loss may be subject to a possible credit of $9,756, leaving a total and final loss, estimated at $79,878.62. That is these securities which cost $136,339.62, and which at six per cent. per annum would produce a yearly income of $8,180.37; are worth but $46.705, and produce an estimated income of only $2,071.20 a year; and will never, in all probability, be worth more than $56,461, which at six per cent. would produce $3,387.66 a year.

By comparing this table G, with the second part of table B, of the Committee of last year, (see Appendix to the Minutes of 1841, p. 470, bottom,)—it turns out that the stocks (leaving out the bonds and mortgages,) estimated then, and reported to the Assembly, as being worth $93.022, in the market, are now estimated to be worth $44.032 in the market; showing an aggregate loss on these stocks, within the last ecclesiastical year of $48.990.

It is therefore apparent that it would have been extremely fortunate if the recommendation of the last Assembly had been promptly carried out in the wise and provident spirit which prompted it. Yet the proper time of selling the most of our securities having passed by, nothing better, as the Committee believe, can now be done than to leave the whole matter as to the time and manner of the proposed change of investment, to the sound discretion of the Trustees.

This expose, it must be confessed, is most deplorable. The instruction it communicates is so emphatic that the Committee forbear to make any comment.

We have not had time to look into the state of the funds held upon bond and mortgage, nor that of those upon bond only. But we have received the impression that all the former are secure, and most of them available, and that all the latter (of which the amount is not very large, about which the tables filed give all the detailed information we possess,) are unavailable and insecure.

The chairman of this Committee is directed to name to the Assembly, an individual as a suitable person to be elected a Trustee, in the place of the one reported to have been removed by death.

3. We proceed next to the Report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton. It was remarked by the Financial Committee of the Assembly last year, and we regret to make the same remark again, that the money part at least of this report is not from the Treasurer, instead of the Secretary of the Board; and that it is not full, detailed, and particular in regard to all the finances of that Board. We ask the Assembly to request this change in the mode of reporting on the part of this Board of Trustees; which is the more important under the contemplated transfer of funds to it.

As far as we understand the condition of the funds of the Seminary managed by its own Board of Trustees, they seem to have escaped the wreck of our other funds; and to be regularly increasing from the liberality of our people.

We have already stated that the actual deficit in the salaries of the Professors in the Seminary, reported by the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly, will be this year $2,728.80, after applying to those salaries the estimated income, as recommended in the former part of this report. We now recommend that the Trustees of the Seminary at Princeton, take upon themselves the raising of this deficit, in whatever manner they judge most advisable; and that from year to year, while any deficit of this kind exists, they go on, till the further order of the Assembly to raise it by annual contributions from the churches. There is no doubt, that the same liberality which has been manifested towards this object for the two past years, will continue to supply whatever sum is necessary for it; and it occurs to the Committee that this is the simplest and most efficacious disposition of this important matter, in the present state of our affairs.

This Report contains the gratifying information that the Alumni of the Institution are proceeding with vigour and wisdom in the enlargement of their Library, at present attached to it.

With these observations, the Report is herewith submitted marked H.

4. The remaining paper referred to this Committee, is the report of a committee appointed by the Assembly the year before last, and continued last year, to raise the deficient means for paying the current expenses of the Seminary at Princeton. The Committee has been enabled to achieve the object for which it was temporarily appointed; and the funds required were contributed to the amount of $ 6,382.48 during the past year, chiefly within the bounds of the Synods of Albany, New York, New Jersey, and Philadelphia. To the churches under the care of these Synods the Seminary at Princeton must chiefly look in future for the means of its support and enlargement; and all past experience proves, that these churches will willingly and promptly respond to every proper call made upon them in its behalf.

Having recommended another, and as we think, a better disposition of this subject, we do not suppose it is necessary to prolong the temporary expedient resorted to last year and the year before by the continuance of the committee whose reports we are now considering. Nor does it appear more proper to print in or with our minutes the list of donations contained in their report, than any other list contributed for other important objects under the care of the Church. That Report is therefore returned, and recommended to be filed with the papers of the Assembly.

The tables and documents submitted herewith, and lettered from A. to H. inclusive, are recommended to be printed in the Appendix to the minutes.

In concluding this report, the Committee, while they see much to lament in the misfortunes incident to the past management of the funds held by the Trustees of the Assembly, feel called on to say, that they have every reason to be convinced of the integrity and good intentions of all who have at any time participated in the control of this large trust. They deem it also proper to say, that while the great losses we have sustained are certainly much to be regretted, yet we have no idea these losses will seriously embarrass, much less permanently arrest any of the great operations of the Church. While our people are truly inspired with love to God and faith in his only begotten Son; while our ministers are actuated by a deep and fervent zeal for the good of perishing men, and the glory of our risen Lord; He, whose we are, and whom we serve, will supply liberally and unceasingly, all the means needful for our good and for his praise. Let us then, confessing the hand of God in all things, go boldly forward, trusting in His divine promises.

All which is most respectfully submitted.

(Signed,)

Winthrop Sargent, D. R. Preston,

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On motion, the Assembly proceeded to the order of the day for yesterday, which had been postponed, when the standing rule regulating the manner of electing Professors in Theological Seminaries was unanimously suspended, and the Rev. Alexander T. McGill was elected Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government in the Western Theological Seminary.

The Assembly proceeded to the second order postponed from yesterday, when the Rev. Willis Lord was elected Delegate to the General Associations of Connecticut and Massachusetts, and Rev. Henry A. Boardman, was appointed alternate.

On motion, the further consideration of the subject of Delegates to Corresponding bodies, was referred to the Committee of Foreign Correspondence, to report to-morrow morning.

Mr. Smock offered a resolution to send down an Overture to the Presbyteries, for such an alteration of the Constitution, as that the Commissioners to the General Assembly shall be the representatives of the Presbyteries in their Synodical capacity; and so as that the ratio of representation shall be two ministers and two ruling elders for each Synod whose number does not exceed fifty ministers, and one minister and one ruling elder for each twenty-five ministers above that number—which was laid on the table.

Dr. Krebs offered the following minute, which was unanimously adopted, viz.

Whereas the Church of Scotland is at the present moment engaged in a perilous struggle, in which her dearest rights are involved, and in which the attempt is made to dictate to the flock of Christ who shall be their spiritual leaders and pastors, thus virtually usurping the place of the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Head of His Church, and menacing the people of God with the deprivation of their most sacred privileges; and whereas, the prelacy, papacy, and infidelity of Scotland, rejoicing in the prospect of overturning that noble Church of Christ, (which in the darkest and most appalling periods of persecution boldly maintained its testimony for Christ,) are arrayed with the civil power to despoil the Church of her proper spiritual rights and powers, in hope of counteracting her influence in opposing error in all its forms; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly does most affectionately extend to the Church of Scotland its most tender sympathy in her present season of tribulation, and most devoutly prays that she may be safely guided through her painful conflict to a successful, happy, and peaceful issue.

2. That this General Assembly recognizes the great principles for which the Church of Scotland is contending, and believes them to be just, vital, and scriptural, and that for their defence every temporal sacrifice, even to the sacrifice of life itself, should be cheerfully made.

3. That in the opinion of this General Assembly no compromise involving the sacrifice or the abatement of these principles should for a moment be listened to, and that the contest should never be relaxed, until the seal of reprobation is indelibly affixed to the odious principle of patronage.

4. That a copy of these resolutions, and a copy of the resolution respecting the Anniversary Commemoration of the Westminster Assembly, signed by the Moderator and Clerks of this body, be transmitted to the General Assembly of the Kirk of Scotland, and to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in connexion with the Church of Scotland.

On motion, the Assembly sat in a judicial capacity, and the Court resumed Case No. 1, the Appeal of Mr. McQueen. The roll was called in continuation, that the members might give their opinions; which having been concluded, the final vote was taken, viz.

On motion, the order of the day was taken up, viz. Case No. 6, the Appeal of Beck against McMahon, and it was referred to the next General Assembly.

On motion, it was

And then the Court rose.

Mr. B. M. Smith moved a reconsideration of the resolution adopted on Monday last, to recommit the new Book of Hymns, and the Book of Psalms, to the Committee of Psalmody. The motion being put, the vote thereupon was, Yeas 58, Nays 21; which not being two-thirds of those who were present and voted on the resolution to be reconsidered, it was declared that the motion was lost.

Whereupon Dr. Breckinridge offered a minute, which was considered, amended, and adopted by sections as follows, viz.

1. Resolved, That in view of the minute of the Assembly, last year and this year, in regard to the new Psalm and Hymn Book, the Assembly order

And then the whole minute was adopted. Yeas, 60; Nays, 11.

On motion, Resolved, that the Board of Publication be requested to distribute the remainder of the edition of the new selection of Hymns to the Presbyteries.

On motion, the report of the Committee on the Narrative was taken up, and adopted. And it was ordered that the Narrative be printed in the Appendix to the minutes.

Resolved, That the following persons be appointed delegates to Corresponding Bodies, viz.

To the General Conference of Maine.—Rev. Joseph Harvey, D.D., principal, and Rev. Albert T. Chester, alternate.

To the General Convention of Vermont.—Rev. Wm. D. Snodgrass, D.D., principal, and Rev. John H. Symmes alternate.

To the General Association of New Hampshire.—Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, principal, and Rev. Villeroy D. Reed, alternate.

To the German Reformed Church.—Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D., principal, and Rev. Daniel McKinley, alternate.

The Permanent Clerk presented the bills for the contingent expenses of the Assembly, amounting to $171.51.

Ordered, that the Board of Trustees pay out of the contingent fund, to the Permanent Clerk, the aforesaid sum.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Philadelphia, reported; and the records were approved with the exception of the judicial case therein, which is not yet decided.

The Committee on the records of the Synod of Indiana, reported; and the records were approved.

Dr. McFarland moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday, adopting the report of the Committee of Finance. And pending the motion,

At the request of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, a committee of the Board, viz. Rev. Dr. John McDowell, Rev. Henry A. Boardman, and Mr. Solomon Allen were heard. And after debate, the motion to reconsider was, by general consent, agreed to.

Whereupon the following minute was offered by Dr. Krebs, and unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee of Finance be so amended as that the gross amount of the revenue accruing from the consolidated investments of the funds contributed, for the various purposes controlled by the General Assembly, after deducting the expense of managing the funds, be distributed pro rata according to the original, specific destination thereof, to the missionary fund, the scholarships and the professorships of the Princeton Theological Seminary. Also, that it be referred to the Boards of Missions and Education, and to the Trustees of the Princeton Seminary respectively, to raise the deficits existing in the missionary, scholarships', and professorships' funds.

And then the Report of the Committee of Finance as thus amended, was unanimously adopted.

On motion, Resolved, That the report of the committee appointed by the last Assembly to raise contributions to supply the deficit in the income of the permanent funds, be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

On motion of Mr. Weatherby,

Resolved, That while the Assembly has learned with much satisfaction that the operations of the American Bible Society are on the increase both as to the collection of funds and the distribution of books; yet such is the rapid growth of our population from natural increase and foreign immigration, and such the insidious advances of popery and traditional religion, that measures far more extensive than those now employed ought to be adopted for keeping all our families and schools well supplied with the sacred Scriptures, the great Protestant rule of faith and practice.

On motion, the remaining items of unfinished business were referred to the next General Assembly, viz.

1. Letter respecting the legacy of Jane Porter.

2. Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on the overture from the Presbytery of Chilicothe, on the subject of slavery.

3. Report of the Committee on the overture from the Presbytery of Lodiana on the subject of baptism.

4. Report of the committee appointed by the Assembly of 1841, on the subject of a Directory for Adult Baptism, &c.

5. Mr. S. K. Talmage's resolution to overture the Presbyteries for such an alteration of the Constitution as to require the General Assembly to meet biennially instead of annually.

6. Mr. Smock's resolution to overture the Presbyteries for such an alteration of the Constitution as that the representation in the General Assembly shall be from the Synods, and not from the Presbyteries, in the proportion of two ministers and two elders from each Synod of not more than fifty ministers, and one minister and one elder additional for every additional twenty-five ministers.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the inhabitants of Philadelphia for their hospitality during the present sessions; and also to the Trustees of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, for the gratuitous use of their building for the sessions of the Assembly.

The minutes of the present session were read and approved.

The roll was then called, and it appeared that no one was absent without leave.

The Assembly having finished their business, it was Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in such place in the city of Philadelphia as shall be designated by the Stated and Permanent Clerks, on the third Thursday of May, A. D. 1843, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Accordingly, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, and the sessions were concluded with prayer, singing, and the apostolical benediction.

JOHN M. KREBS, Permanent Clerk.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

Presented by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church to the Churches under their care.

Christian Brethren—The growth and prosperity of the Redeemer's kingdom is dear to the hearts of all his sincere followers. For the increase and the peace of this much loved Jerusalem, throughout the world, in our own beloved country, and in the pale of our own communion, your prayers ascend to heaven, and the alternate tears of grief and gratitude, accordingly as she declines or prospers, which you shed "in secret places," attest, we trust, that no cause lies nearer your hearts, than that for which the Saviour died. We pause therefore in our attention to the other affairs of the Church, to communicate to you a brief review of the dealings of God with our religious community during the ecclesiastical year which has now closed. We have received the written Narratives of about seventy of our Presbyteries. These reports, if we defer for the concluding part of this summary such general topics as are common to them all, and consider them first in the general tone of their statements as to the interests of religion, may be divided into three classes.

The first address us in the language of grief and lamentation, and speak of the cause of religion as depressed and discouraging. Harmony and peace, and an outward attention to the ordinances of God's house, and the duties of religion, exist indeed, and a feeble, languid cooperation in behalf of the benevolent objects of the Church is given, but lukewarmness, worldly-mindedness, and inactivity prevail. Christians do not sufficiently distinguish themselves from the people of the world; the vital warmth of piety is neglected; the Sabbath is not suitably hallowed; and family religion is suffered to decline. These delinquencies are the more to be deplored in those parts of our Church, where the ministers of the gospel are few, the congregations feeble, and where of course the preservation of order and discipline, and the healthful state of religious feeling, must greatly depend upon the life and activity of ruling Elders and private Christians. It would appear from the Presbyterial narratives, also, that the suspension of the influences of God's Holy Spirit, the depression of business and productive employments, and the general decline of public prosperity, with other forms of Providential trial and rebuke, do not produce any adequate humiliation, repentance, and awakening among the children of God; but that the cares of the world—the conformity of many to fashionable amusements and entertainments, and the great neglect of the means of promoting vital godliness still continue to prevail. Few are consequently found to mourn over these marks of spiritual declension, and sigh and weep for the afflictions of Zion, and fervently to pray for those refreshing seasons when Christians took sweet counsel together, and many were added to the Lord. As the Assembly cast their eyes over those portions of the Saviour's heritage, where the ways of Zion thus mourn, they would affectionately address their slumbering fellow-Christians in the words of the ascended Master himself—Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent and do thy first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly and remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

The second class of Presbyterial Reports, present a more encouraging picture of their spiritual welfare. These speak of considerable, and in a few cases, of quite unusual additions to the churches, as appears to have been the case with many congregations in the Presbytery of Redstone. Others mention instances of hopeful conversion of a striking and interesting character, an increased attendance upon public ordinances, and a growing attachment to social meetings and devotional exercises. In the absence of any general revival, God's people have experienced solemn and joyful seasons of refreshing, and a gradual accession of members has followed. Walking in harmony and peace, ministers and churches have preserved the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace, and an encouraging attention to the word spoken has marked the dispensation of the Gospel of peace; congregations have been strengthened and increased in numbers, houses of public worship erected, ministers have been diligent and faithful in their work, and prayer meetings, Bible classes, and Sabbath schools, well sustained.

From the narratives of the respective Presbyteries within whose bounds these institutions are located, we learn that the Theological Seminary and the College of New Jersey, at Princeton, South Hanover College, and the Indiana Theological Seminary, and the Theological Seminary of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, are in a condition of growing prosperity and usefulness. The Assembly are also pleased to learn that in a large number of the Southern Presbyteries an increased attention is paid to the religious instruction of the coloured population; and connected with these Presbyteries are a number of ministers who devote their time exclusively to this class of people, and with flattering indications of success in their labours.

In passing on to our third and remaining class of Presbyterial communications, we proceed from the gentle and almost imperceptible traces of Divine influences, to record those clearly defined seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord—those precious revivals of religion of greater or less extent and power, which many of the churches have enjoyed; and in which many hearts have been opened to give earnest heed to the words of life, and many hopeful converts been brought into the communion of the Church. In these places our dear brethren have been called to render praise and thanksgiving to a faithful prayer-hearing God, that under the plain and simple exhibition of his truth, in its common and ordinary forms, heavenly influences have come down as rain upon the mown grass, and the word spoken become the wisdom of God, and the power of God unto salvation. Of the congregations in which God has thus appeared in his glory to build up Zion, the Assembly may specify the congregations of Derry, Londonderry, and Peterboro, in the Presbytery of Londonderry; East Hampton, Bridge Hampton, Sag Harbour, Huntington, and Hempstead, in the Presbytery of Long Island; Trenton 1*st church*, and Trenton city, Pennington, Shrewsbury, second church Upper Freehold, Kingston, Princeton and Lawrence, in the Presbytery of New Brunswick; Tunkhannock, Wysox, and Orwell, in the Presbytery of Susquehanna; Huntington, United 1*st Church Amwell*, and Lambertville, in the Presbytery of Raritan; The Mariner's church in Philadelphia; The cities of Richmond, Petersburgh, and Norfolk, in the Presbytery of East Hanover; Pisgah, Bethel, McChord church (Lexington,) and Georgetown, in the Presbytery of West Lexington; Greenville, and Hillsboro, in the Presbytery of Kaskaskia; The 1*st church in St. Louis*, the church of Nashville, in West Tennessee; Lebanon, Pleasant-Trust, and Knoxville, in the Presbytery of Holston; Lexington, in the Presbytery of Hopewell; and the College church, Oxford, and Holly Springs, in the Presbytery of Holly Springs. In addition to these, the Presbytery of West Hanover mentions several churches within their bounds—the Presbytery of Bedford, four—those of Miami and Steubenville, one each; and that of Tuscaloosa, several, as having, during the past year enjoyed similar effusions of the Holy Spirit. The result of these times of refreshing has not only been the conversion of sinners, and the accession of many, especially among the young, to the communion of the Church, but the growth of piety, and the increased activity and fruitfulness of professing Christians in charity, liberality, and good works; and a prolonged vitality, and permanent improvement in the condition of the churches.

While the Assembly rejoice in these cheering and refreshing tidings of the work of the Lord, they would earnestly exhort our whole body to pray without ceasing, and labour without weariness and discouragement for such, and still greater out-pourings of the Holy Spirit. In the midst of revivals, the riches of grace, and the glories of redemption shine out resplendent and convincing: God is greatly honoured, gospel truth stamps its impress upon society with peculiar distinctness, and a salutary impulse is given to personal religion in the soul, and to all the objects of active usefulness without. We do not see how our churches are to meet the expectations of this interesting age, and this growing country, or fulfil their part in the great work of missions both at home and abroad, unless they become more and more the theatres of these precious displays of the grace and power of God. Let all our people then unite as the heart of one man, to throw off that religious apathy, to struggle against that worldliness and secularity which is so unbefitting our holy vocation, and to become strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might, warm-hearted, self-denied, zealous and active in all just and scriptural endeavours, to secure the presence and the blessing of the Holy Ghost.

From the General Associations of Connecticut and Massachusetts, their Delegates to this body have communicated cheering intelligence of the harmony and growing prosperity of their churches, and of the enjoyment of many revivals of religion, "marked by an entire absence of noise and extravagance, but by overwhelming evidence of the special influence of the divine Spirit upon the understanding and heart." The churches in the Association of Windham county, in the first mentioned State, have in this respect been blessed more abundantly than for many previous years.

The Assembly find on turning to the subject of the contributions of the churches, to carry forward the works of piety and benevolence, that while in a few cases, notwithstanding the great pressure of monetary affairs, so generally felt in this country, there has been a continued and even increased liberality—most of the Presbyteries complain of a very serious decline. This is a matter which professing Christians should conscientiously examine. Great and sudden fluctuations must necessarily embarrass the Boards of the Church, and God no doubt often checks the course of public prosperity, that he may try the faith and fidelity of his people. Surely the cause of Christ should not be the first to suffer from the depressions of adverse times in a land so highly favoured as our own. Let Christians, then, amidst all such embarrassments, consider what they owe to God, and to the destitute, and the honour of religion, and act accordingly.

The reports of almost every Presbytery from one extremity of our land to the other, speak of the past year as one which has given to the Temperance reform an impulse and a triumph without a parallel in the history of modern times. We rejoice in what our eyes have seen, and our ears have heard of the wonderful progress of this change, which is not only, we would hope, the precursor of a still more glorious revolution in the spiritual condition of society, but which promises, with God's blessing, to redeem this great empire, and indeed the whole civilized world from a vice which for many departed years has borne its tens of thousands to untimely graves. We are glad that it has enjoyed the co-operation of the ministers and congregations of our body in an eminent degree, and we would counsel them to perseverance in the good work, until such efforts shall no longer be necessary; maintaining, however, in all such movements, the principle that the question of the use of fermented wine in the holy sacrament is not one that comes within the province of Temperance measures or discussions.

The Assembly advert with pleasure to the uniformity with which the Presbyteries speak of an increased and growing attention to Sabbath school, Biblical, and Catechetical instruction. The doctrines and the spirit of that form of Christianity which is drawn from the Bible, and embodied in our Catechisms, are the power of God to salvation—the life of the Church of Christ, and the glory of nations. In these precious and holy doctrines in their living power, our youth and children must be trained up, if we would hope for a generation of men suited to these eventful times; and if in the progress of events, we would raise up in our midst for other climes, heralds of salvation, valiant for God, to penetrate as it were, Caucasian mountains, and Lybian deserts, and Ethiopic deltas, and barbaric islands, uplifting the standard of the cross amidst arctic rocks and snows, or tropical arid sands, and accounting it the noblest expenditure of life and health, of body and soul, to preach the gospel of Christ where "there is no vision, and the people perish." Nor should we forget that here, in the training of the young of our congregations, in the ways of righteousness, and in the sound knowledge of the truth of God, is our best hope of success against that spirit of declension and fatal error which is abroad alike in our crowded cities, and the thinly settled forests of our western states and territories. What, dear Brethren, is to lead this nation in safety through the moral battle of conflicting principles and interests, through the volcanic heavings and agitations which are inherent in the nature of its elements, but this? What shall effectually withstand the papacy in its last effort to lay its iron sceptre upon this land, and other parts of Protestant Christendom, and once more make all nations tremble at its voice, but the most wakeful attention to this duty among all who fear God? Let all the Presbyteries be particular in this matter. Let them every where inquire whether the youth and children are trained to be familiar with the Bible, and the Catechisms. Let parents, and heads of families, co-operate with them, and be faithful to train up their children in the knowledge of God's word. Finally, while the Assembly would invite their fellow-disciples to unite with them in thanksgiving to God for all that has been encouraging in the past, they would point them to the duties and obligations, and brightening hopes which lie before. "The night is far spent, the day is at hand." "Brethren, the time is short."

This apostolic admonition sounds with solemn import in our ears, as memory here recalls dear and honoured fellow-servants, some of them, while yet in the prime, and strength, and vigour of their manhood, whom death has in the last year consigned to the silent grave. The voice of persuasive eloquence has ceased; the greeting hand of friendship is outstretched no more, and the counsels, and prayers, and labours of life are for ever ended. Let us all consider, dear Brethren, how soon our own lips may also be sealed in death, and what our hand findeth to do, let us do it with our might while it is yet day. Our Church covers an extended field, already white unto the harvest. Our missionary enterprises are fast expanding before us, in remote and far distant climes; and in our own beloved country, for the maintenance of sound principles, and wholesome religious institutions, for the better sanctification of the holy Sabbath, and the diffusion of education, and a good evangelical influence, much remains to be done. Great are the responsibilities of our Church, and how does she need to be aroused to a just sense of her present duty to him, who is now calling many Gentile lands to awake from the dead, and hail the gladsome morning of salvation as it shall spread upon the mountains! Oh, Brethren, let us unite to seek a general and prolonged effusion of the Holy Spirit. Let such an humble, determined, noble aim, take full possession of our souls; and in all our churches, let gracious hearts abound in prayer—let generous hands be open to yield their offerings to God—and let solemn assemblies and well attended prayer-meetings—faithful Christian examples—and the kindling influences of combined and united activity, be every where exhibited, and then trusting in the God of Israel, we shall see the work of the Lord go forward, and each revolving year, more rich in gospel blessings than that which preceded it, shall attest that unto those who wait for him, the Lord shall appear in his glory to make "Zion a joy and a praise in the earth."

A LETTER FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND, TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Reverend and Dear Brethren.—We have received with much satisfaction the letter of your Assembly, dated 4th June last, the first of a regular correspondence with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; and join most cordially in the hope expressed, "That our hearts may be mutually refreshed by the good tidings we may communicate to each other."

We rejoice to learn, that the result of the separation between you and "those who have gone out from you," has evinced the wisdom and necessity of that decided measure. We pray, that you may feel the power of that scriptural truth for which you have been contending, not only in the fraternal peaceful meetings of your ecclesiastical judicatories, but in the hearts and lives of the different members of your Church. We gratefully acknowledge the receipt of the volume transmitted by your Assembly, and assure you, that we shall always be happy to hear of the progress of your Institutions, and trust that the blessing of the Lord will render them more efficient in carrying on His own work in all your borders.

We continue to have cause of rejoicing in the union of the two great sections of the Presbyterian Church which now form our General Assembly. We have had many tokens of the Redeemer's love—in the extending of our Church at home, and in the efficiency of her agency in the foreign field; in a closer intercourse with our parent Church in Scotland, and with the Presbyterian Church in England; and, in the assurance of "your delight to hold with us fraternal intercourse as part of the great body of Christ."

The first act of our Assembly, as you are already aware, was the designation of two of our beloved ministers to the Foreign missionary service in India. One of them has been called to his rest, and in the inscrutable wisdom of the Lord, has been removed from a sphere for which he seemed eminently qualified, and in which he had already been useful. Four others have since been set apart to this work, two have already sailed for their place of labour. The others, God willing, will sail in May—and we are encouraged to expect that these shall be joined by still other labourers in extending the kingdom of the Redeemer amongst the perishing heathen.

At the last meeting of our Assembly, as you will learn by the minutes of our proceedings, copies of which have been forwarded to your Moderator and Clerks, a mission was formed to the "Lost sheep of the House of Israel;" already considerable funds have been raised for this special object, and we trust that in a short time, some of our brethren will be actually engaged on this most interesting field of labour.

The Home mission of our Church still continues its operations, cheered by occasional evidences of the blessing of the Lord, in the formation of new congregations, in the conversion of souls through the ordinances of the Gospel, and in a considerable awakening to the importance of scriptural truth amongst the Irish speaking portion of our population.

Upon the whole, we have cause to rejoice, that the good work of the Lord is carried forward through our instrumentality. We shall feel it a privilege from time to time, to communicate to your Assembly the result of our continued labours.

In conclusion, we repeat our deep interest in the purity, efficiency, and success of the Presbyterian Church in America. Holding the same scriptural truth, based on the same platform of Church government, and labouring in the same glorious cause, we pray, that the pleasure of the Lord may prosper in your hands, and that souls may daily be added through your instrumentality to the kingdom of the Redeemer.

Signed in the name, and on behalf of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, this seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, at Belfast.

TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, THE SYNOD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CANADA IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, GRACE, MERCY, AND PEACE FROM GOD OUR FATHER, AND THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Dearly Beloved Brethren:—Once more our joy has been increased by your annual Letter, read to us in Synod assembled, and we give thanks in your behalf to the Lord Jesus Christ, the King and Head of his Church for all the blessings wherewith he has blessed you. The position you occupy in his Church on this continent is one of great prominence, involving responsibilities of the highest order, and our earnest prayer is that you may be found faithful in the trust that has been committed to you. Possessing as you do, in common with ourselves, standards of doctrine so Scriptural and a form of discipline so primitive and pure, to which you are careful that your teaching and government shall be conformed, we seem to behold you in the front rank of the faithful witnesses for the truth, whom God will bless and honour in extending that spiritual kingdom which consists not in meats and drinks but in righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. On these grounds, the pleasure we derive from a fraternal correspondence with you is deep and unfeigned. Our spheres of labour are in the same vineyard, and not so distant but we can speak to each other in words of encouragement and love.

We forward to you a copy of the abstract of the minutes of our present Session, now about to close, from which you may form a judgment of our State and the course we are endeavouring to pursue for the advancement of the Saviour's kingdom. Our home missionary operations we are using our best efforts to extend, but the field is so wide and the labourers so few, that our hearts are like to sink within us when we survey the very inadequate supply of spiritual ordinances we can give, and that only in a small portion of our territory, while a still larger portion of it is but rarely refreshed, even with a passing visit of those whom we have commissioned to preach the Gospel. This destitution does not arise from any great disproportion between the number of our ministers and that of our adherents. The number of ministers upon our Synod Roll is eighty-two, and we estimate our adherents at one hundred thousand, giving a proportion to each minister not greater than his pastoral labour might overtake in a flock compactly located. But scattered as they are throughout this extended province, and separated from each other by large uninhabited forest-tracts, it has been found impracticable to embrace more perhaps than one half of our people within our stated pastoral charges. To relieve in some degree this mournful destitution of divine ordinances we have devised a scheme of missionary and itinerant labour, in which the occasional services of all our ministers may be rendered available for the more thinly settled townships contiguous to them. Our attention has also been directed to the sad condition of our fellow subjects of French extraction, who are immersed in popish darkness, and our hope is that we shall soon be able to bring into that portion of our home mission field Protestant missionaries from Europe, speaking the French language, who shall not be chargeable with keeping back the word of God, from the people, nor of handling it deceitfully, who shall by manifestation of the truth commend themselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

We have also been moved during the present Session to take a more decided part with the parent Church in her missions to India and the Jews. Although our temporal resources are far from being adequate to our own necessities, we are nevertheless constrained to some acknowledgment of our obligation to relieve a spiritual wretchedness still more aggravated than our own, putting our trust in Him to whom the kingdoms and wealth of the world belong, believing that he will accept our sacrifice and requite a thousand fold into our own bosom. Experience has taught us that efforts for the salvation of the heathen at a distance, when wisely directed, tend rather to increase our energy in removing the heathenism existing around us, and our endeavour is that our liberality may be as extended as our desire, when in our daily prayer we say, "thy kingdom come, thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven."

At a crisis like the present in the history of the Church of Scotland, when we are looking with anxious solicitude for the development of the Divine purposes regarding her, we cannot but be deeply affected with the expressions of your kind sympathy in her behalf. In her assertion of spiritual independence, in her struggles to cast off the injurious usurpations of secular power, she is once more revived to the spirit which actuated her in the best periods of her history. But when we consider the principles which govern those who desire to retain her in bondage, and the power which they can wield to accomplish their end; and when we look at the Popish and semi-infidel liberalism so eagerly combined with the Erastianism of the State to work her overthrow, we cannot altogether suppress the apprehension that momentous changes will result in some of her external relations. But for her suffering in such a cause and its issue we give way, no, not for a moment, either to fear or despondency. On the contrary we cherish the hope that she will come out of the trial as gold, purified by the fire, and that her martyr-testimony will awaken a reforming spirit in those lands where the domination of the civil power has long subverted the liberty and corrupted the purity of the Church of Christ.

Among the many circumstances in the general aspect of Christendom that awaken within us concern and vigilance, we may advert to the bold pretensions which of late have been set forth by numerous adherents of the prelatical authority, and the more eager grasping of the Church of Rome to regain her former tyranny over the consciences of men. At such a time we feel it to be more peculiarly incumbent on us to be fully on our guard against the ambitious machinations of the man of sin, under whatever guise they are detected. In so far as popery is a political combination against the rights and well-being of the civil community, we leave it to be dealt with by those to whom the guardianship of civil freedom is entrusted, offering up fervent prayer unto God that all Christian rulers may be moved to resist the insidious encroachments of this spiritual tyranny, that they be not overwhelmed in the just judgment of Almighty God. But in so far as popery is a spiritual delusion, destructive to the souls of men, we feel it to be our duty both in our ecclesiastical judicatures and in our public teaching to testify against it, to expose its deformity, and to rescue men from its degrading bondage, and while thus contending for the faith once delivered to the saints, we trust we shall never use any weapons save those which it sanctions, and that we shall never fail in the benevolent spirit which it inspires.

It affords us sincere gratification to review, on such an occasion as this, the many ties by which we are united. We place some value on the fact that we possess a common origin and a common language, but far more that we are partakers of a like precious faith. The revival of your correspondence with the General Assemblies of Scotland and Ireland, with which we are so intimately united, we hail as the omen of perpetual affection and fraternal remembrance. It is a worthy object of desire that Presbyterianism may be one throughout the world. The facilities of intercourse, and the many bonds that unite the nations of the earth into one great commonwealth, seems to us as the voice of Providence, inviting the Church to proffer the alliance of brotherhood to all who in every place call upon the name of the Lord Jesus, both theirs and ours. The divine influence that is to subject the world to his dominion operates every where, and unites into one body all who believe; and although an intimate fellowship be impracticable, united hearts and fraternal correspondence is the undoubted duty and privilege of the churches of God.

Longing and praying as we do, that we all may be one, and labouring in our own sphere with efforts on which the blessing of God hath rested, to heal divisions that have arisen in our fatherland, in the olden time, out of peculiar circumstances, we cannot repress our fervent hope, that the division which in late years has arisen in the Presbyterian Church of the United States, will yet be cemented, in the spirit of brotherly love, and on the basis of truth and scriptural order, as they are set forth in the common standards. In your late arduous struggle to preserve the purity of the Church, we cannot doubt that you were actuated with an earnest desire to maintain your allegiance to its adorable Head; but if it should appear, now that you are further removed from the turmoil of the battle, that through heat or misapprehension any offence has been causelessly given, occasion is presented of humiliation and sorrow on the part of the offending, and of forgiveness and charity on the part of the offended. The affairs of human life are often so complicated, that a mixture of evil seems inseparable from our best conducted measures, and our rejoicings at success are not unfrequently mingled with our tears. That many, who from their local connexions, are at present disconnected with your Assembly, are yet cordially joined with you in the same mind and in the same judgment we are fond to believe; that in so far as error and irregularity of discipline have prevailed among them, they grieve and are stirred up to a more decided testimony against them, we have had some gratifying evidence. Prizing as we do truth above unity, and unity as it results from truth and is subservient to it, we shall hold that as a day of jubilee, when both are fully restored among you; and we will not cease to offer up our prayers unto Him, who still intercedes with the Father, "that we all may be one," that He may remove every obstacle out of the way, and lead you by faithful adherence to our scriptural standards and the good old ways in which our fathers trod to a real and visible unity—a unity that will not be less real and visible, though you should resolve to subsist in distinct ecclesiastical organizations within your distinct territories, manifesting your unity and fellowship by fraternal acts of correspondence and co-operation in the work of the Lord. May peace be within thy walls. For our brethren and companions' sake, we will now say, Peace be within thee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PSALMODY.

The Standing Committee on Psalmody, respectfully report to the General Assembly:—

The Committee during the past year have been diligently and laboriously engaged upon the work entrusted to them. Besides the necessary consideration which it required from each member of the committee individually, they have held several meetings, which continued about one week each, and in which they conferred together freely and fully, and thoroughly revised their whole work, upon which they have bestowed much anxious thought. During its progress thus far, they have been called on to lament the death not only of the Rev. Dr. John Baxter, which was noticed in their report last year, but more recently, that of another of their associates, the Rev. Dr. John Breckinridge. The undersigned remaining members of the committee, have been permitted by the favour of divine Providence, to close the first portion of their work, which has occupied the period of four years, and has now, as far as they are concerned, been brought to a happy and harmonious result. For, agreeably to the expectation held out in their report to the last Assembly, they have at length been enabled to complete the work, and to pass their final and unanimous vote thereon, in so far as relates to the selection and compilation of a Book of Hymns. These are six hundred and seventy in number, beside the necessary Doxologies; and in making the selection, the committee have consulted every similar work to which they could gain access, and have agreed to admit only such, as, after mature deliberation, received the unanimous vote of the Committee. It is hoped that the book thus carefully and toilfully prepared will be found worthy of the Assembly's approbation, containing, as it is believed, in great variety of metre, a very copious variety of evangelical hymns, on every topic appropriate to the exigencies of private, family, social, and public worship. This book is now herewith presented to the Assembly.

Having received authority from the last Assembly to print an edition so soon as they should be ready, the committee have caused a sufficient number of copies to be printed and bound, to put into the hands of every member of the Assembly, a specimen of the work. They would add that the completion of this part of their work is to be understood with reference solely to the elements of the book, and that while the committee have desired also to arrange the same in some such systematic order as would render it more complete and available for convenient use, they have not yet had time fully to consider and agree upon the precise arrangement to be adopted—the arrangement according to which the book is now exhibited—which occupied the uninterrupted labour of a sub-committee for at least one month, not having received the final revision and approbation of the committee. This part of the work, which though very important is only subsidiary, has been so far considered that the committee believe they can complete it without any inconvenient delay. And, accordingly, they have not felt at liberty to withhold the book in its present arrangement, after having prepared it as to the main question concerning it, for the consideration of the Assembly. And if their selection of Hymns should receive the approbation of the Assembly, the arrangement can be completed, and the book put to press, immediately after the adjournment of the Assembly, so as very speedily to meet any extent of demand that may arise for it.

The Committee intimated in their report last year, (which was approved by the Assembly,) that the complete revision of the Book of Psalms might require until May, 1843. That expectation has now become certainty. In order fully to meet the designs of the Assembly in their appointment, and the wishes of the Church, and to do justice to the subject entrusted to them, they feel, after the consideration and experience they have already had, that in so important a work as the full revision of the Book of Psalms, already authorized, and in use, and in the settlement of the principles upon which a book is to be composed which is intended to meet the wants of a communion so various and extensive as the Presbyterian Church, and is designed for the use of generations to come, they do need the entire amount of time proposed. No one who has not made the experiment can well conceive the delicacy, difficulty, and toil of such a work. Yet the Committee are also satisfied that with the leave of Providence, they will be able to make a final report upon the Book of Psalms by next May. That this delay is not unreasonable will be further apparent, when it is considered, how many books are to be consulted, and existing versions compared with each other, and with the inspired Psalms; that this is first to be done, by each member of the Committee individually; and that afterward, journies are to be performed and meetings held wherein there is to be a full interchange and comparison of views, in order to secure which, so large a committee was appointed—and that all this labour is to be performed amid the pressing cares and duties pertaining to the employment of the members of the committee in the pastoral office. And however natural may be the desire upon the part of the Church, as well as upon our own part, for the speedy termination of our labours, this is impossible in itself, and if it were, impatience would only cause us to hurry before the Church with an immature, ill-digested, and certainly unacceptable book, and most probably after so many previous attempts hitherto, to the discouragement of both effort and hope of obtaining a suitable book of Psalms and Hymns for years to come.

Happily however the want of the Book of Psalms for one year longer, after so much thought and patience as have been exercised, and while the Church is already in possession of various versions of the Psalms that may continue to be used in the meanwhile, will not probably press very heavily; and, especially if, in the meantime also, the Hymns now presented should be approved and put in circulation by the Assembly.

The Hymns in their separate form, will, at all events, if they are approved by the Assembly, be adapted to many wants of the Church which have not hitherto been fully met, and may very properly take the place of other collections which though in use, have never been authorized, and are at best insufficient. And whether they were, or were not, now accompanied with the Book of Psalms, with which as well as with a portion of our standards, they will hereafter, according to the resolution of the last Assembly, be bound up in one volume—yet convenience and taste will at all times, also frequently demand that each of these books be bound up separately. And this being the case, it is not deemed necessary nor proper to keep the Hymns back at present, merely for the sake of having the first edition that may be published bound up in the same volume with the first edition of the contemplated Book of Psalms.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AT PRINCETON.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton report to the General Assembly, that agreeably to the report of their committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's accounts, viz. Benjamin Strong, and John J. Bryant, Esqrs. the Treasurer, James S. Green, Esq. has, since the last settlement, in May last, received and paid the following sums, viz. He has received—

On the Contingent Fund, for Professors' salaries, $7,334.24, which added to the balance due this fund, on last settlement, of $60.50, makes the sum of $7,394.74; and he has paid for Professors' salaries, $7,315; leaving a balance due the Contingent Fund, of $79.74.

On the Expense Fund he has received, the sum of $916, which added to the balance due this fund on the last settlement, of $246.05, makes the sum of $1,162.05; and he has paid out for servants' wages, cleaning the Seminary, Treasurer's commissions, and other contingent expenses, the sum of $847.50; leaving a balance due this fund of $314.55.

On the Scholarships, and Education Fund, he has received the sum of $3,259.36, which added to the balance due this fund on the last settlement, of $164.43, makes the sum of $3,423.79; and he has paid out to the students on the orders of the Professors, the sum of $2,882.50; leaving a balance in his hands, due this fund, of $541.29.

Recapitulation of balances.

1. Contingent Fund,	$79.74
2. Expense Fund,	314.55
3. Scholarships, and Education Fund.	541.29
Total balance on general account,	$935.58

The library through the year has received by donation, the following additions, viz.:

From the Rev. Gilbert Morgan, of Amsterdam, New York, thirty volumes of valuable books, chiefly folios and quartos.

From Walter M. Lowrie, an Alumnus, one volume, and several small maps and surveys.

From the Rev. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, of Burlington, New Jersey, four volumes.

From the Rev. Dr. William B. Sprague, Albany, twenty-one volumes.

From Mr. Robert Carter, bookseller, New York, one hundred volumes.

From James Lenox, Esq. of New York, one hundred and seven volumes.

From the Alumni Association, for the Alumni Library, two hundred and ten volumes.

Presented to the same Library, from John Whetham, bookseller, Philadelphia, five volumes, folio.

The Alumni Association authorized the Professors of the Seminary, to purchase books with the money contributed or collected by them. The library of the late Rev. Dr. John Breckinridge, having been offered to them by his executors, it was agreed to take it at the appraisement of two competent persons. The library consisted of from a thousand to twelve hundred volumes. They were appraised at $900. From this sum, $120, which Dr. Breckinridge had directed in his will to be paid to the Alumni Fund, was deducted; and his executor, the Rev. Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge, made a donation of an equal sum, which reduced the cost of the library from the funds of the Alumni Association, to $660.

From the preceding statement, extracted from the reports of the librarian, it appears, that the addition to the libraries of the Seminary through the year has been more than fifteen hundred volumes.

At their meeting in September last, the Board received a deed executed by Moses Allen, James Lenox, and Samuel A. Foot, of New York, Trustees of a certain fund, collected principally in New York, transferring said fund, consisting of Bank Stock, described in the schedule annexed, to this Board. According to this deed, the Trustees are to hold this fund, and apply the income arising from it, for the support of the Associate Professor of Oriental and Biblical Literature, for the time being, in the Theological Seminary. In this deed, the following proviso is contained, viz.

"That if at any future time, the said Seminary shall pass from under the supervision and control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America, now known as the Old School General Assembly, and its successors; or if at any future time, the leading doctrines declared in the Confession of Faith, and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church, such as the doctrine of universal and total depravity, the doctrine of election, the doctrine of the atonement, the doctrine of the imputation of Adam's sin to all his posterity, and the imputation of Christ's righteousness to all his people for their justification, the doctrine of human inability, the doctrine of the necessity of the influences of the Holy Spirit, in the regeneration, conversion and sanctification of sinners, as these doctrines are now understood and explained by the aforesaid Old School General Assembly, shall cease to be taught in said Seminary; or if at any future time, the said stock, or the proceeds thereof, shall be invested in any other way, than on bond and mortgage on real estate, worth one-third more than the amount so invested, exclusive of buildings; in either of these cases, then in trust, in the second place, to transfer and pay over said stock, or the proceeds thereof, and the fund thereby represented, and every part and parcel thereof, to the Trustees of the College of New Jersey, at Princeton, in said State, to be applied by them to the purpose of educating indigent and pious young men for the gospel ministry."

The stocks transferred to this Board, by this deed, according to the schedule annexed, consists of the following Bank Stocks, viz.

45 shares Merchants' Exchange Bank, New York, par value 50 dollars per share,	$2,250 00
27 shares Leather Manufacturers' Bank, New York, par value 50 dollars per share,	1,350 00
10 shares Phœnix Bank, New York, par value 25 dollars per share,	250 00
20 shares Bank of Commerce, New York, par value 100 dollars per share,	2,000 00
Total amount,	$5,850 00

The Board have further to report, that at their meeting on the 17th inst. a deed executed by the Rev. Joseph McElroy and James Lenox, of the city of New York, Trustees of four benevolent individuals in the Scotch Presbyterian Church New York, who had deposited with them the sum of $4,000 towards the endowment of the same Professorship of Oriental and Biblical Literature, as mentioned before, was received, transferring the said $4,000 to this Board, with the same proviso as the preceding transfer, except that in case of forfeiture, this Board are to "transfer and pay over the said $4,000 to the Trustees of the Scotch Presbyterian Church in the city of New York, to be applied under the direction of the Session of said Church to the general purposes of Foreign Missions."

The preceding two transfers make the amount belonging to this Board, towards the endowment of the Professorship of Oriental and Biblical Literature, now filled by the Rev. Joseph Addison Alexander, $9,850.

The Board have further to report, that they have received from the Trustees of the General Assembly, seventy-nine shares of the stock of the Mechanics' Bank, Philadelphia, which cost $3,318—which sum was transferred to this Board in compliance with a resolution of the last Assembly, found page 442 of their printed Minutes. This transfer was made by the Trustees of the General Assembly on account of the following sums, which on examination it was found of right belonged to this Board, viz.

Bequest of Robert Ogden, Esq. for the Permanent Fund of the Professorship of the Synod of New York and New Jersey,	$400 00
Bequest of Jane Trimble, to aid in the endowment of a Scholarship,	100 00
Bequest of Rev. Dr. James Hall, for Permanent Fund,	300 00
Bequest of John Keith, to found a Scholarship,	2,500 00
	$3,300 00

The Board have only further to report, that at their meeting on the 17th inst. they adopted the following resolution, viz.

"Resolved, That all endowments of Scholarships and all funds and monies given or bequeathed for the support of any Scholarship in the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, N. J., shall be kept separate and distinct from each other, and from all other funds of the Trustees of said Seminary, and be invested in bond and mortgage on real estate, worth one-third more than the amount so invested, exclusive of buildings; and that the income of the funds of each separate Scholarship shall be applied wholly to the use of such Scholarship, and for no other purpose whatever."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF WAYS AND MEANS.

The Committee re-appointed by the last General Assembly to apportion the anticipated deficiency of funds, necessary to meet the current expenses of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, through the year, among the churches belonging to the Synods of Albany, New York, New Jersey, and Philadelphia, and to call upon the said churches (either by an agent, or in any other manner that to the said committee may seem fit) for such proportions of said deficiency, as in the judgment of said committee, they ought severally to contribute; beg leave to report,

That they made the apportionment among the churches as directed. The highest sum requested of any one congregation was $150; and the lowest $20. When the committee were appointed by the last Assembly, it was anticipated, as stated in their minutes, (page 436,) that the deficiency would amount to upwards of $4000—and to raise this sum they were appointed. They have as stated above, succeeded in raising $6382.48. The deficiency has considerably exceeded the estimate. The drafts on this fund through the year have been $5817.66. leaving a balance belonging to this fund, in the Treasury, of $564.82.

And here the committee would remark that the $660 received from the Walnut street church, Philadelphia; and the $500, received from the First church Baltimore, reported above, were given with the understanding, that if more than enough should be raised to meet the current expenses of the Seminary through the year, these congregations might appropriate the balance of their donations, above the sums apportioned to them, to the permanent, or any other fund of the Seminary. The whole balance of $564.82, is therefore at the disposal of those congregations.

The committee, in the conclusion of their report, would most respectfully and earnestly call the attention of the General Assembly to the state of the funds for the support of the Seminary. They have ascertained that the deficiency this year will, almost certainly, be greater than it was the last. The income from the permanent fund, applicable to the payment of professors' salaries, the assistance of students on the scholarships and students' fund, and the appropriation to the Board of Missions, will probably be, according to the calculation received by your committee from the Treasurer of the Trustees, $3421.20—while the expenditures to be met will be $10,242.04—leaving a deficiency to be provided for of $6820.84.

Such are the probable facts in the case. And having stated these facts, the committee leave with the Assembly to devise the ways and means of meeting the anticipated deficiency through the year.

All of which is respectfully submitted by the committee.

Report of the Board of Trustees to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, respectfully Report:

That, in compliance with the resolution adopted by the last General Assembly, they directed their Treasurer to close the old books of account and to open new ones, based upon the present state of the funds; which he has done: and the books so opened are submitted to the examination of the Assembly.

Immediately upon receiving the instructions of the General Assembly, relative to the transfer of funds to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, the Board instituted an examination to ascertain what funds in the custody of this Board belonged of right to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, which should be transferred to the Trustees of that Institution, according to the resolution of the General Assembly: and having ascertained that funds to the amount of three thousand three hundred dollars had been transmitted at various times, by the Trustees of the Seminary to this Board for investment, and that the same had been invested accordingly; a Committee was appointed to confer with a Committee of the Trustees of the Seminary, upon the securities to be transferred to that Institution on account of this sum. These Committees met in the month of December, and agreed that seventy-nine shares of the stock of the Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia, held by this Board, which cost three thousand three hundred and eighteen dollars, should be transferred to the Trustees of the Seminary in satisfaction of this claim; and the transfer was made accordingly on the 14th day of January last.

The Board also referred to their Committee on Finance the resolution of the Assembly, directing a change in the investment of the funds, as soon as it could be done with advantage and safety, with instructions to that Committee to act accordingly: but such has been the great depression of all the stocks held by the Board, that they could not have been sold without a great sacrifice, and therefore no change has as yet been made in the investments. The Board will, however, keep in view the directions of the Assembly, and make the change as soon as in their opinion, it can be done with advantage and safety.

By order of the Board,

ALEXANDER HENRY, Vice President.

JAMES BAYARD, Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25th, 1842.

STANDING RULE.

In the minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule which was adopted by the Assembly. "An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows, viz.

Whereas the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

Resolved, That this Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would of his infinite mercy condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of His own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of Stated Clerks of the respective Synods, to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, an annual report, stating in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841 (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

GENERAL VIEW.

Notwithstanding the earnest solicitation that Presbyteries would adopt measures to have their Statistical Reports complete, some are still defective, and from the following Presbyteries no reports at all have been received, viz. Sangamon, Muhlenburg, West Tennessee, North Alabama, Charleston, Georgia, Flint River, Clinton, Arkansas; of these, Arkansas has not reported for several years. The neglect of so many Presbyteries is almost unprecedented, and it is to be regretted as it renders the Statistics of the Church in every department incomplete.

During the past year, the Presbyteries of Long Island and Long Island 2d, have been amalgamated, and are now known as the Presbytery of Long Island. Four new Presbyteries have been formed by their respective Synods, viz. Holly Springs, by the Synod of Mississippi; Clarion, by the Synod of Pittsburgh; East Alabama, by the Synod of Alabama; and Maumee, by the Synod of Cincinnati; and three new Presbyteries have been formed in Northern India, agreeably to the direction of the Assembly, viz. Lodiana, Furrukabad, and Allahabad; in all seven new Presbyteries during the past year.

During the year also the Synod of Wheeling has been organized agreeably to the directions of the General Assembly of 1841, embracing the Presbyteries of Washington, Steubenville, St. Clairsville, and New Lisbon. The Synod of Northern India, has not been, from peculiar circumstances, formally organized, but it is from convenience inserted in the list of Synods.

There have been reported one thousand three hundred and sixteen ordained ministers; one hundred and ninety-two licensed preachers; two hundred and twenty-nine candidates for the ministry, and one thousand nine hundred and four churches. If to these be added, the numbers given in the last reports of the nine Presbyteries which are recorded above as delinquent, the numbers would be, one thousand three hundred and ninety-nine ordained ministers; two hundred licentiates; two hundred and thirty-seven candidates; and two thousand and twenty-five churches. Exclusive of the nine delinquent Presbyteries, the number of communicants reported, is one hundred and forty thousand four hundred and thirty-three, and the sum collected for religious objects is one hundred and sixty-two thousand five hundred and twenty.

As far as reported, there have been sixty-four licensures; sixty-eight ordinations; forty-four churches organized and received; eighty installations; and the following twenty-one deaths of clergymen reported, viz.

WM. M. ENGLES, Stated Clerk of Gen. Assembly.

NOTE.—Agreeably to the direction of the General Assembly the odd cents have been cast out of the Statistical Reports, except under the head of Contingent Fund, but the totals are correct, including the cents thus cast off. This is done to leave room for the column of miscellaneous collections; and it is earnestly requested that Stated Clerks of Presbyteries will hereafter abstain from reporting cents, as the requisite alteration causes much difficulty in preparing the tables for the press.

* Since the reports were made out several deaths have occurred, as that of Mr. Wharey, of Virginia, and Dr. Blythe, of Kentucky.

TO STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are respectfully requested to use the requisite effort to have their Presbyterial Reports complete; to have them accompanied on the lower margin with an historical account of changes; and to have them signed by their names as Stated Clerks. It is also requested, that if they order Minutes for individuals not belonging to the Presbytery, on the same sheet with the Report, they would make the memorandum so as not to interfere with the regular table; and that all proper names and numbers should be very legibly written. It is desirable that the Statistical Reports should be transmitted by mail immediately after the spring meetings of Presbyteries, and at the latest they must arrive during the sittings of the General Assembly to insure their insertion in the Minutes.

TO PRESBYTERIES.

It would save much trouble and some mistakes if all Presbyteries would transmit a sufficient sum to pay for the Minutes, at the rate of fifty cents for each member. The memoranda which are sometimes sent to the Stated Clerk, are defective and leave him in doubt what members of a Presbytery are entitled to the Minutes, as a sufficient sum to supply all has not been transmitted. As the Contingent Fund is not only chargeable with the expense of printing the Minutes, but with all the contingent expenses of the Assembly, and the paying delegates to foreign bodies, the Presbyteries should see the propriety of contributing something to it, in addition to the price required for their Minutes. It is requested that Presbyteries would not report any thing under the head of Contingent Fund, but what is actually paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, or the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. In several of the tables now published considerable sums are reported which have never been received.
